

CSBR, P.O. Box 699,
Glendora, CA 91740

CSBR
NEWS RELEASE

“To study is to have the knowledge of truth” (Dr. E. William Bean).

JOIN THE CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF BIBLICAL E-LESSON GROUP

Dr. E. William Bean is Director of the Centre for the Study of Biblical Research and a U.S.A. Advisory Board member of the “Dead Sea Scrolls Foundation.” Dr. Bean authored the book, “New Treasurers: A Hebraic Perspective to New Testament Teachings” and, writes for two periodicals, “Restore” and, “Illustrated Bible Life.” In addition he has written introductions for “EKS Publishing Company” and “Meet the Rabbis,” authored by Dr. Brad Young. In addition he has served as a member for the “International Synoptic Society.”

Dr. Bean had an astonishing experience in 1988 when he met the shepherd who discovered the scrolls. Later the shepherd was taken back to the cave area for additional information. Dr. Bean has sat under the teachings of scholars in Jerusalem, Israel, and his own lectures exhibit similarities between the Sectarian Scrolls and the New Testament. This includes the words of Jesus and John, including the Synoptic Gospels.

Dr. Bean is meeting each week with students and interested scholars, studying the Synoptic Gospels. This material is sent out to involved individuals through the “E-Lesson” program. This year the study is in regard to Dr. Bean’s new book, “The Knowledge of Truth.” Each month the discussion from this class is provided as a Pdf lesson and Mp3 Audio. All this material is provide to you for a small monthly donation. You may discontinue the program by just contacting CSBR by e-mail. To gain more information Go to: <http://www.csbr.net/> and click “E-Study” in the menu section, and when interested, your password will be sent. All previous lessons will be provided in the archive section.